Remarks

There is only one Endless Summer. They say some homes are built, and others are dreamt into existence. More than a residence, this is a coastal heirloom designed as a reverie on Lido Key, where days stretch long and golden nights are spent under twinkling stars. Here, morning begins with salt-kissed air drifting through balconies that open like quiet invitations to the sea. Crafted with designer precision, nearly 3,300 square feet of refined interiors unfold in soft whites and warm golds. Quartz catches the light like sun on shallow water, balanced by warm woods and soft textures that echo the shore just beyond the walls. A perfect complement to the chef's kitchen, the great room offers dining and living spaces where laughter and long meals linger. A second lounge area, the club space feels like a hidden chapter where stories unfold over amber drinks, rain-softened afternoons, and the kind of company that never watches the clock. Each of the six suites offer a private retreat like personal chapters in a story meant to be shared across generations. Outside, time slows. The saltwater pool shimmers like a private lagoon, complete with spa, sun shelf, and lush greenery that wraps the grounds in quiet seclusion. Covered terraces whisper of morning coffee and midnight talks, and
